

Increases in Arrearages, Select Utilities

Table 1: Number of Households in Arrears by Utility, February 2022 vs. February 2021

Utility	Households in arrears Feb 2021	% Households in arrears Feb 2021	Households in arrears Feb 2022	% Households in arrears Feb 2022	Households in arrears: % change Feb 2021 to Feb 2022
PG&E (California)	1,165,932	21.2%	1,308,030	23.6%	12.2%
Pepco (Washington, D.C.)	69,098	23.4%	75,520	25.0%	9.3%
Consumers Energy (Michigan)	363,388	13.2%	407,124	14.5%	12.0%
Con Edison (New York)	387,487	13.1%	403,045	13.4%	4.0%

Table 2: Arrearage Balances by Utility, February 2022 vs. February 2021

Utility	Total amount owed Feb 2021	Total amount owed Feb 2022	Amount owed: % change Feb 2021 to Feb 2022	Average arrearage balance per household Feb 2021	Average arrearage balance per household Feb 2022
PG&E (California)	$653,948,110	$760,838,808	16.3%	$561	$582
Pepco (Washington, D.C.)	$31,090,000	$39,343,848	26.5%	$450	$521
Consumers Energy (Michigan)	$88,661,691	$98,846,986	11.5%	$244	$243
Con Edison (New York)	$579,228,186	$840,159,546	45.0%	$1,495	$2,085